Terms and Conditions

Deposits: Customer understands and acknowledges that Contractor may procure materials and take other necessary actions to perform the work agreed to in this contract. Therefore, any deposit returned at the request of the Customer will be the amount of the original deposit less any job related expenses incurred by the Contractor after the deposit has been received and before the Customer's request for the deposit to be returned. These expenses may include, but are not limited to materials purchased specifically for the cancelled job and permit fees. Contractor will provide written proof of all expenses deducted from the returned deposit. Additionally, Customer acknowledges that obtaining approval of an insurance claim from a carrier involves time and expense and provides value to the Customer. Accordingly, Customer understands and agrees that is he/she cancels this contract after the insurance carrier approves the claim but before the work commences,

Defects: Customer understands that certain defects including, but not limited to, deteriorated decking or rafters, may not be discoverable until work has commenced and therefore, unless specifically included in writing, are not included within the initial scope of this contract. Customer and Contractor agree that work to address these and other such discovered defects will be bid as needed at time of discovery and, upon acceptance, this amount will be in addition to the original contract amount. Contractor is not obligated to perform any such work if Customer does not accept and agree to Contractor's bid or unless otherwise agreed by Contractor and Customer in a change order signed by both Customer and Contractor.

Payment Terms: The parties agree that Contractor will issue bi-weekly invoices for payment (also referred to herein as a "draw") to Customer. Full payment by Customer on a draw shall be due within 5 days of the date of the draw. Any draw not paid within 5 days will accrue interest at the rate of 1.5% per month or 18% annually, and will be subject to the Breach Due to Non-Payment provision below. A 11/2% per month service charge will be added to the balance of all accounts 30 days or older.

Breach Due to Non-Payment: Customer's failure to comply with any payment obligations under this contract shall constitute a material breach of this contract, and Contractor shall be entitled to all remedies and damages available to Contractor under the law. Further, in the event of such breach by Customer, Contractor shall have the right to permanently stop work and leave the project due to Customer's breach. Contractor shall be entitled to recover from Customer all attorneys' fees, expenses, and costs incurred by Contractor in connection with Contractor's attempts to collect any amounts owed to Contractor by Customer under this contract, including, but not limited to, those fees, expenses, and costs incurred as a result of litigation.

Partially Completed Jobs: Customer understands that Contractor may need to put a commenced job on hold due to circumstances beyond the control of Contractor. Such circumstances include, but are not limited to, weather, hazardous conditions, Customer's express decision and/or waiting for other contractors to complete necessary preliminary work. Customer agrees that the cost of the completed portion of the work will be billed and is payable at the time such circumstance occurs, and that Contractor shall not be responsible or liable to Customer or any third party for any losses, costs, or damages that may result from Contractor acting pursuant to this provision.

Materials: Customer understands and acknowledges that unless specifically agreed to in writing, all materials removed from the job location for the purpose of performing work, and any unused materials remaining after this job is completed are the sole property of Contractor.

Excess Costs: If at any time a home construction service provided under this contract requires extra costs above the cost specified or estimated in the contract that were reasonably unforeseen, but necessary, and the total of all extra costs to date exceeds $5000 over the course of the entire contract, Customer has a right to an estimate of those excess costs before Contractor begins work related to those costs. Customer shall initial below his/her choice of the type of estimate the Customer requires from the Contractor.

Written estimate:	Oral Estimate:	Date:

Customer's Indemnification of Contractor: Customer has represented to Contractor that Customer has obtained the necessary permissions and/or authorizations for Contractor to perform the work set forth in this contract, and Customer acknowledges that Contractor has relied on such representations. Customer agrees to fully indemnify and hold harmless Contractor and its employees from any demand, claim, or action of any kind by any third party that may arise out of Contractor's performance under this contract, including any damages, attorneys' fees, expenses, or costs arising out of any such demand, claim, or action, except any that may arise out of the sole negligence of Contractor.

Dispute Resolution: For any disputes that arise under this contract, except for those that arise solely due to Customer's breach of the Payment provision above, the parties acknowledge and agree that no lawsuit may be filed unless and until after the dispute has been submitted to mediation through the American Arbitration Association. The mediation shall be pursuant to the American Arbitration Association's Construction Industry Rules and Mediation Procedures and shall occur in Savage, Maryland. This contract shall be governed by Maryland law and the parties acknowledge and agree that exclusive venue and forum for any lawsuit arising under this contract shall be a state or federal court located in Howard County, Maryland. Contractor shall be entitled to recover its attorneys' fees, expenses, and costs in the event Contractor prevails in any such lawsuit between the parties. A formal mediation dispute between homeowners and contractors is available through the Maryland Home Improvement Commission. The Maryland Home Improvement Commission administers the Guaranty Fund, which may compensate homeowners for certain actual losses caused by acts or omissions of licensed contractors. A homeowner may request that a contractor purchase a performance bond for additional protection against losses not covered by the Guaranty Fund. Claims against the Guaranty Fund will be stayed until completion of any mandatory arbitration.

Severability: In case any one or more of the provisions contained in this contract should be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable in any respect, such provision shall be deemed modified to the extent necessary to permit its enforcement under applicable law, and the validity, legality, or enforceability of the remaining provisions hereof shall not be affected nor impaired and shall remain in full force and effect.

General Warranty Conditions: Contractor gives the following limited warranty on all types of repair and installation. All labor and material is warranted as specified on the following page – titled Categories of Slate Repair & Warranties, and will be provided in a workmanlike manner according to standard practice of the trade. Contractor cannot warrant that the roof will never leak. Contractor warrants that they will repair any leaks caused by Contractor's work occurring during the term of any specific warranty. No provision of this or any other warranty shall be construed to cover damages to the building or contents thereof or to cover damages or leaks caused by circumstances including, but not limited to, the following:

- Any condition beyond the control of Contractor
- Acts of God
- Strikes or delays
- Abuse, misuse, accident, vandalism
- Installation of skylights, attachments or penetrations, unless performed by Contractor
- Defective workmanship of other trades or contractors
- Negligence in maintaining the roof
- Structural defect

All warranties are eligible to be transferred to a new owner for the remainder of the life of the original warranty. In order to qualify for a transferrable warranty, the current owner must have The Durable Slate Company out to inspect our work prior to the sale of the property. If upon inspection the work appears to have been properly maintained and unaltered, then a transfer of warranty that covers only our work, specifically indicated in writing by the Contractor will be provided. If the current owner has hired any other company to do any work on or related to the roof in the area of where our work was done, our warranty will be null and void and no transfer of warranty is permitted.
